

April 2023

In MY Prayer Time...

Another very busy month with hubby in the hospital, but PRAYER WORKS! He will come home May 2, finally I will be able to unpack my suitcase. He is a miracle, My God is so good. He will be starting Chemo & Immunotherapy treatments on his lungs very soon. So, appreciate all your prayers.

Through this month of April, I have really come to realize just how important my prayer life is and standing on God's word is. When I put Him in remembrance of what His word says and what His promises are they cannot return void. I know I can trust Him.

This month I hear Him saying, "Build My Kingdom", so what does that mean? Matt 6:33 says, "I am to seek first the Kingdom, and His righteousness. Then all other things will be added." So, I must put Him first, and walk in His righteousness, and not self-righteousness, then the things I need will be available to me.

Then He reminded me in Matt 7:13 & 14, "Enter Ye into the strait gate for wide is the way to destruction, and many there be that go there." I ask Him what exactly what does that mean? He showed me it meant going the way of this world, and thinking about self-first, money and things, possessions, power, and success to be of most important. Then in verse 14 He says, "Because strait is the gate and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life and few there be that find it." His presence and relationship with Him must be first and be of most importance. Seeking God's will for my life and glorifying Him, living in His love, His peace, His joy bringing Him to every area of my life, casting my cares on Him because He loves and cares for me. Letting Him lead and guide me, He said He would be a light to my feet and lamp unto my path (PS 119:105). He is calling me to shine for Him, show forth His goodness, not just sit around and wait for the rapture. He has so much for me and you to do to build His Kingdom, He is waiting to come back, He is waiting on you and me, His Church to wake up and be about His business.

He reminded me that not everyone that says Lord, Lord shall enter into the kingdom of Heaven, but He that doeth the will of His Father which is in heaven. Then will I (Jesus) will profess unto them, I never knew you. (Matt 7:21-23) Once again the Lord is saying it is not about just doing things it is about relationship with me.

Time in this world is a thief. I must make the Lord my priority; He must be the most important. The closer I walk with Him the more joy and peace He gives to me. Every day He must be my most important. The word also says, "Ye shall know them by their Fruit." Verse 16. Then, Verse 19, "Every tree that brings not good fruit will be hewn down and cast into the fire. So, I must always be aware of the fruit I am producing in my life. All of heaven is waiting, the Father, Jesus, Holy Spirit, the Saints and the Angels are waiting and watching for opportunity to help me, lead and guide me into the Heavenly Harvest and Build God's Kingdom. He has so much He wants to share with you and me. He is waiting!!!
